That's an odd use of the term "Principals."

In the BDCP world over the past few years, the "Principals Meetings" have been very high level discussions (Will Stelle, Mark Cowin, etc.) that frequently meet with the similar set of water exporters (the project proponents). We and the Corps have never been participants.

No idea who this group of "principals" is supposed to be.

All,

Jane and I will discuss. It would be helpful if you all could tell us who these folks are and where they fit in their respective food chains. Thanks.

Good morning,

I have been asked to try and schedule a meeting with the Principles to discuss the EPA's comments on the BDCP.

Please fill out the Doodle Poll for your principle, or forward to the necessary person to complete this poll.

Here is the link to the Doodle Poll - If these dates/times don't work, I will look out into October, thanks.
